

Gain valuable experience teaching kids about nature!

Position Title: Outdoor Science Leader

Project Sponsor: Moscow Adventure Club, Moscow School District

Service Description/Position Summary: The Outdoor Science Leader will develop and/or gather nature-based lessons and activities targeting K-5th graders. The position will run for at least 900 hours over a period of 12 months, encompassing both afterschool days, limited full days during the school year, and summer program months. The lessons developed by the member will be a combination of science exploration, arts and crafts, and games focused on the natural environment. Nature-based activities will fill approximately two to three hours per week during the afterschool program and three to five hours during school year full days and summer program days. Most of the remaining hours will be spent supervising students in recreation and STEAM activities, as well as maintaining the school site. The member will be involved in planning and leading outdoor science field trips during school year full days and the summer program.

Member Activities/Duties:

The AmeriCorps member will plan and lead nature-based activities to fill two to three hours per week during the afterschool program and three to five hours during school year full days and summer program days. The member will be involved in planning and leading outdoor science field trips during school year full days and summer program days. During times when the member is not planning or leading nature-based activities, they will: supervise students participating in science, technology, engineering, art, math, and recreation activities. The member will also assist with activity cleanup and site maintenance (cleaning tables, sweeping, and mopping).
