

SCIENCE UNCORKED

Topics include investigations into nutrient loading, funding forest restoration, an endangered native plant on the Palouse and the secret life of mussels!

- Date: Thursday, March 13th
- Location: Camas Prairie Winery
110 S. Main St. Moscow
- Time: 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm
- Graduate students presentations include:
 - Hallie Rajkovich; MS Student, Water Resources Program
 - Spencer Plumb; PhD Student, Conservation Social Sciences
 - Cat Wiechmann; MS Student, Environmental Science Program
 - Nicole Ward; MS Student, Waters Resources Program
- *Presenters will speak for 15 minutes with live music in between.
- Science Uncorked brings students and the community together in an informal setting to learn about and discuss scientific topics.

Drawing done by Kristen Morrow

University of Idaho graduate students will be speaking about their research Join us!
Wine, beer and hors d'oeuvres available for purchase:

- Fruit, cracker and cheese plates
- Drink specials and wine flights $10 (five, 3oz. pours)

Science Uncorked is a series of events that are meant to bring science and environmental topics into the Moscow community. If you would like to know more about the event, or have any questions, please contact: Katie at kpetererson@pcei.org
Special thanks to Jeremy Ritter, Camas Prairie Winery owner! This is a great opportunity to help support local business, please join us!

Palouse-Clearwater
Environmental Institute
"connecting people, place and community"™
PO Box 8596 • Moscow, ID • www.pcei.org

