

Palouse-Clearwater Environmental Institute

presents the 2015

Seasonal Wanderings Family Series

Check out our free, fun and entertaining family programs this fall!

REGISTRATION REQUIRED!

October

Lovely Leaves

Saturday, Oct. 10th • 10:30AM-12PM

One of the greatest things about fall has to be the changing colors of the leaves! Join PCEI staff at our Nature Center for an exploration of local foliage end with group a leaf pile party!

November

Harvest Hike

Saturday, Nov. 14th • 4:00-5:30PM

What did harvest season on the Palouse look like throughout history? How did the local habitat shape human tradition? Join local historian, Sandra Kelly, for a hike through time around the Nature Center trails. Stick around for a delicious serving of warm, seasonal soup!

December

The Wonders of Wildfires

Thursday, Dec. 10th • 6:30-8:00PM

Why was it so smoky out here this summer? How do wildfires happen and what do plants and animals do to deal with it? PCEI staff and local fire researcher, Aaron Sparks, will explore ideas like this through games, experiments and demonstrations! Make sure you stick around for a campfire and marshmallows!

PCEI Nature Center
1040 Rodeo Drive

Suggested Donation: $3 per person
OR become a member that evening!

Register today!
www.pcei.org/swfs-form/

Dress for the weather!